Departure

Maison de la Mobilité et du Tourisme
2 Esplanade François Mitterrand
74100 ANNEMASSE

Duration

Approx. 2 hours (4 km loop)

① TRAIN STATION SQUARE

An architecture echoing the history of mobility. The city's expansion owes much to the arrival of the railway.

Esplanade François Mitterrand - 74100 Annemasse

② MAISON DES MÉMOIRES

A place of remembrance of local resistance. The avenue de la Gare was the scene of acts of barbarity, but also of great bravery.

21 avenue de la Gare - 74100 Annemasse

③ TOWN HALL

Once a school, Annemasse's Town Hall is now the beating heart of the city.

Place de l'Hôtel de Ville - 74100 Annemasse

④ MONTESSUIT PARK

The park pays tribute to the great figures of Annemasse. Its elegant villa, now a contemporary art center, connects heritage and creation.

Parc Montessuit - 74100 Annemasse

⑤ MILA RACINE PARK

Here echoes the memory of Mila Racine: a resistance fighter, guide, heroine. A memorial where her courage continues to inspire.

Rue du Salève - 74100 Annemasse

⑥ SAINT-ANDRÉ CHURCH

From Gallo-Roman worship to neo-Gothic church, Saint-André spans two millennia of history. Every stone tells time's story.

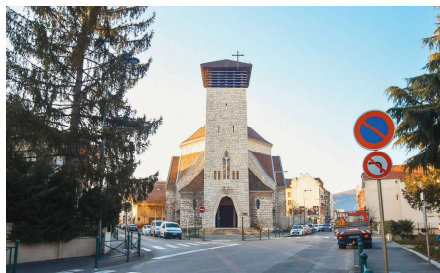

Place de l'Église Saint-André - 74100 Annemasse

⑦ MARIANNE COHN SCHOOL

A story of women : this school bears the traces of girls' education and of Marianne Cohn, a remarkable resistance fighter.

16 rue Aristide Briand - 74100 Annemasse

⑧ SAINT-JOSEPH CHURCH

The beautiful neo-Romanesque one. Discover Dom Bellot's style : a sober architecture, a luminous dome, and colorful stained glass.

27 avenue Jules Ferry - 74100 Annemasse

⑨ CHABLAIS PARK

A modern, lively district between vibrancy and urban poetry : a centenary cedar for memory, a child with a ball for the future.

Rue du Chablais - 74100 Annemasse
